About the Artist

Kay Puttergill is a multi-medium artist. Her works include watercolours, oils, acrylics, pen & ink, ceramics, and sculpture and mosaics. She has sold paintings in Britain, France, South Africa, Botswana, and America; and exhibited extensively in South Africa for 20 years.

Her life has largely revolved around matters artistic, having owned and taught at several ballet schools in the 60's, through architectural drawing and draughting, to adjudicating on exhibition panels and eisteddfods.

Apart from exhibiting and selling through the Watercolour Society of South Africa she was also occasionally on the national selection committee for their exhibitions and attained Associate status as a member.

She also taught art for several years in Grahamstown and Pretoria.

She was self taught until at the age of 56, when she enrolled at the art school of Pretoria Technikon in South Africa in 1998. She completed two years of study there.

Today Kay lives in Barwell, Leicestershire in the United Kingdom and divides her time between her art, her garden and renovating her home.
